

Incense from Prinknash Abbey

Exclusively from Hayes & Finch

Prinknash Incense is made by the Benedictine Monks of Prinknash Abbey, which is set amidst the beautiful, rolling Cotswold hills in the heart of rural England.

The blending of the gums, spices and perfumes for the incense is a specialist art form that has been perfected by the Benedictine monks of Prinknash over the last 100 years. Its production and sales help to financially support the monastery.

Paschal Candles

Hayes & Finch have been producing candles for over 125 years.

The most symbolic of all candles - "The Paschal Candle" is made using a blend of only the finest quality waxes which include a minimum of 25% beeswax.

The wick, which is also manufactured at Hayes & Finch is carefully matched to the candle size and guarantees smooth burning often without the aid of candle followers.

Paschal candles are supplied in a selection of sizes and are adorned with a choice of wax reliefs*.
